Where to go?

Career paths inside and outside academia for Postdocs@HHU

Sooner or later, all young scientists face the question: Which direction should my career take? Whether you are looking for an academic career or a non-academic career: In any case, defined goals and forward planning are the basis of outlining a career path that suits you. JUNO offers a series of events, lectures and workshops open to all post-docs to help you find your own path.
